

MR. JOHN BRAY'S FAMILY'S WAR SERVICES.

SISTER EVELYN (daughter).

(Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service)

Also had several year's training in a London Hospital. For several years prior to the War served in the Royal Herbert Hospital at Woolwich, and early in the War became in charge of the operating theatre there.

In October 1916 was sent as assistant matron to a large military hospital under canvas somewhere in France. Before proceeding thither His Majesty invested her with one of his Birthday Honours, the Royal Red Cross.

Bexhill Observer 4th August 1917