Dear Nance,

Sorry to here that Uncle Ben is dead I aint surprised to here of it I thought he wouldn't get over it when I saw him I should like for you to write to Uncle Ben for I don't know his address but see Annie first as she talked of writing to him.

Dear Nance the reason we talked of having a Taxi was about Annies people getting up Ninfield but you can talk it over with her I myself don't mind which it is we don't want more expense than necessary but I don't think Sargent would be much cheaper if he fetched them and took them home.

I don't think I have much more news to tell you only the daylight saving bill causes us to get up at 5 Oclock its rotten. Dear Nance tell them at home Im all kiff. We have been too busy to write but I ll write to them as soon as possible when do they bury Uncle Ben Do you know where Pocock is gone I was sure he would have to go. I think I ll now close
