Dear Nance and Sammy,

I received your parcel after a long time it was on the 3rd that I received it not in very good condition it was smashed up the butter was alright and one apple and the sweets I must think myself lucky to get it at all at such times there is a good many that don't get them at all I am along with the engineers just now building huts. I don't mind if it lasts till the duration. I don't suppose Miss Allgood is married to her Sargent is she is she finished with the munition works or is she on her holiday. Just ask her if she has washed her feet and cant keep them anywhere she will know what I mean the tale she told us about the girl washing her hair. How was Uncle Ben was he anyways lively I'm glad you got the cards all safe who did that card you sent me come from was that from Beat Munn I couldn't make out who else it was from it wasn't a bad one was it I aint seen any of them doing that sort of work. I don't think there is any more news just now hope this will find you all in the pink as it leaves me so at present
