Dear Nance and Sammy

You will see by my address that I am shifted again about 30 miles farther away into a little Town called Bedale its about the size of Battle by the look of it as old fashioned I am in what was a boarding house it only holds about 20 of us we have all sorts of games Billiard I am sorry to hear about poor Old Arch Waite I saw it in the Chronicle it does seem rough luck he aint been out so very long has he

Well Nance how are they getting on at home does Mum keep improving I expect she get out a bit these warm days I expect Sammy is busy gardening
