Dear Mum and Dad

Just a few lines to let you know that we arrived quite safe we had a lovely journey across we are having some very hot weather now it begins to make the fat fry. How did Sammy make out when he went to Hailsham did he get off again the country looks prettier than what it did the last time I was out here the murfeys (potatoes) are a lot forwarder than that ours I have seen some (h)earthed up they look well I have dropped in with a very good mate his name is Br/Radbourn from Hailsham he married to Mephams sister he tells me well Mum I don't think I have got a lot more news to tell you this time they wont us say a lot so I will come to a close hoping this will find you still mending as I am in the pink just remember me to Tom and all we got tobacco out here at 21/2(d) an ounce something different to 8d aint it

So good night to you both from Yours Loving Son Harry XXXXXX
