

BEXHILL WAR HOSPITAL SUPPLY DEPOT

_____:O:_____

Very good work continues to be done by Bexhill ladies at this depot, which is under the cheerful superintendence of Mrs Cyril Maude. It is especially gratifying to hear that the number of workers has considerably increased.

During June the following articles were made and dispatched:-

Surgical - 195 many tailed bandages. 315 roller bandages, 60 eye bandages, 60 shell dressings, 55 gauge swabs, 60 splints, ten pairs operation stockings, 90 Davis slings, nine surgeon's veils.

Made from old linen sheets, pillow cases, tablecloths etc.____ 15 small pillows and cases, 20 feeders, 10 handkerchiefs, 15 bed pan covers, 10 operation table sheets, 15 tray cloths, 5 dressing cloths, 5 large pillow cases.

Other materials: - 14 dressing gowns, 15 night shirts, 6 pairs pyjamas, 12 bed jackets, 10 ward bags, 10 hot water bottle covers, 15 knitted scrubbers, 30 knitted face swabs, 20 anti-vermin vests and pants, 7 pairs slippers.

Total, 1,157.

Bexhill Observer 8th July 1916 P106138